Members are encouraged to review the candidate profiles before voting.

How to Vote

1. Visit any branch during the advance polling period.
2. Request an advance ballot from branch staff.
3. Complete the ballot privately.
4. Place the completed ballot in the secure ballot box provided.

Voting Eligibility

- Members must be in good standing.
- One vote per member.

If you have questions about the voting process or candidates, branch staff will be happy to assist you.

Tom Devost

Tom Devost is an entrepreneur and real-estate investor with nearly two decades of experience in business operations, regulatory compliance, and asset management. He is the Founder and President of Golden Peak Cannabis Inc., a federally licensed micro-cultivation cannabis company established in 2019 with his wife and business partner, Renee Desjardins. In this role, he oversees the company's day-to-day operations, regulatory compliance, and strategic direction.

Operating within a highly regulated industry, Tom ensures the business maintains strict compliance with federal requirements established by Health Canada, including ongoing reporting to Health Canada and the Canada Revenue Agency.

Since 2005, Tom has also owned and operated multi-unit residential apartment buildings through RT Properties, his real estate investment company. In 2010 he developed a 12-unit residential property and has been responsible for securing financing, negotiating acquisitions, and managing long-term real estate assets.

As a member of Mosaik Credit Union, he values the cooperative model, and the role credit unions play in supporting local businesses and communities.

Leon Fisher

Leon Fisher was born in Truro, Nova Scotia, and spent most of his life in Tor Bay in Guysborough County. Over the years, he worked in several industries including commercial fishing, construction, and marine electronics. Leon owned and operated his own marine electronics sales and service business for sixteen years before retiring.

Leon has been married for forty-seven years and, together with his wife, has raised three children. Their family has grown to include thirteen grandchildren. After retiring, Leon moved back to Truro ten years ago.

Leon has been actively involved with credit unions for more than fifty years. He was a member of East Coast Credit Union (formerly Bergengren Credit Union) and later joined Community Credit Union, now Mosaik Credit Union, after relocating to Truro. Leon served on the Board of Directors of Community Credit Union until the amalgamation that formed Mosaik Credit Union, and during his final term, he served as Chair of the Audit Committee.

In his spare time, Leon enjoys old country music and can often be found playing and singing at local jam sessions. He also enjoys preparing income taxes for family and friends. Leon and his wife live in their home on Burnyeat Street in Truro.
